Who in the days of his flesh, when he had offered up prayers and supplications, with strong crying and tears, unto him that was able to save him from death and was heard, in that he feared.

---Hebrews 5:7

"Merciful Father; "Te confess all our shortcomings and offenses against thee. Thou alone knowest how often we have sinned: In wandering from thy ways; In wasting thy gifts; In forgetting thy love. But thou, O Lord, have pity upon us; who are ashamed and sorry for all where in we have displeased thee. Teach us to hate our errors; Cleanse us from our secret faults; and forgive our sins; For the sake of thy dea. Son our Javiour.

The Young People meet at 7 "Following Christ," will be oclock. the Topic, with Miss Ruth Snyder as the The attendance last Sabbath evening was above 90. It was the last meeting of the contest for attendance at the meetings, which was started six weeks ago, when the Society was divided into two parties. The attendance had before averaged 20. Of course it is not to be expected that so large a number will attend regularly in the future, but it will doubtless increase the average number . The Society is preparing topic cards with the names of landers.

A special Meeting of the Ladics Aid Society has been called by the president for next Wednesday afternoon to complete unfinished business, at the home of Mrs. George Docker Jr.

The Ladies held their monthly necting last Wednesday, at the home of the President, Mrs Charles Renner. They met at noon for their covered dish luncheon and worked on a new quilt. The occasion was of special interest, as it occurred on the birth-day and the wedding anniversary of the hostess. To commemorate the event the ladies presented her with a very nice lamp stand of the latest pattern, which was a complete surprise and cause of helight to their esteemed president.

Those present were: Mrs. Peterson.
Mrs. J. Docker Sn; Mrs J. Docker Jn; Mrs.
Mrs. B. Green; Mrs. L. L. Green; Mrs. Del. Green
Mrs. R. Hood: Mrs. C. Meyers; Mrs. Yount; Mrs.
E. Oram; Mrs. Ray Frey: Mrs. Ch. s. Renner.

The prize was drawn by Mrs. R. Hood who will be the hostess for the February meeting.

The local Red Cross chapter supplies us with this summary of its activities in the distribution of flour to the needy in Oxford.

"During the months of June 1932 to January, 1933, inclusive, the local chapter of the Red Cross has delivered flour to 51 families, representing 288 people.

"The flour was all received in 25 pound bags, and a total of 528 bags, or over six and a half tons, have been distributed in Oxford.

Deliveries are being made once a month by the Alan Wood Mining Company's truck without cost to the chapter."

Miss Rosalie Barson who always () prepays her subscription to our current Church expenses, has sent in her pledge () for the next three months. It is a timely help to the church.

It was a pleasure to have with us at the Morning worship last sabbath Mr. Floyd E. Dreisbach, of Phillipsburg. He was a guest for New Year's Day at the home of Elder E.B. Foss.

Our genial fellow citizen, Patrick Kempsey, was a caller at the Manse, last week He contributed to the expense fund of the Bulletin and also furnished some odd old relicts from the old Company store, which Will be noticed later. Skating in Oxford Fifty Years Ago

Mr. George R. Jearing has sent us the original subscription list to raise money to have the snow removed from furnace pond. It is dated January 19th, 1883.

The heading runs: "We the undersigned members of the 'Spring Lake' Skating Club, here by subscribe the following amounts for the purpose of defraying the expense of clearing snow off the ice at the above named lake, near the new furnace. (signed) by, G.R. Searing; A.M. Ryan; Eugene Pittenger. J.A. Price; W.H. Searing; C.H. Axford; Harry Luxens; J.M. Searing; Henry Lanterman. The total was $ 2.45.

Mr. Searing adds some explanatory remarks of much interest, Saying:

"Oxford had only about fifteen skaters before the dam was built near the furnace; and they called it Spring Lake. The first fall of snow after we had skating interferred with the sport, and the above petition was started. They employed Shafer Reese, Anson White and Young Edwards to remove the snow from the Lake.

There was a great demand for skates at the Store. All enjoyed the sport and thereafter assisted in removing the snow.

I recall several young ladies who were graceful skaters: Misses Lanning; Lizzie Ward; Wilkinson; Mellie Vosseller; Jadie Ward; Mamie Lukens; Mellie Weston; Ruth Axford; Mollie StaleyMeta Baylor; Ida Zulauf.

Mr. Searing also sends a note about some Jonestown children.
Miss Annie Lukens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.J.H.Lukens, married James Wilson.
"They had one daughter, and Mrs Vilson was very fond of Misses Grace and Mabel Maxwell. It was some time before she could decide which one to name her daughte for, but finally called her Grace.

"Mrs. Wilson related to me a very interesting conversation between two little ladies, about five years of age, regarding a little colt belonging to Miss Edith Jones, who had invited Grace to see it. Edith was very much excited about this fine colt, and taking Grace be the land, hastened to the barn, and when she had worked the door open, Grace stood amazed and did not express any opinion.

Then Edith exclaimed, 'Well, why don't you say something! You don't know a good thing when you see it!"

Mr. Jearing has sent postage for another year of the Bulletin, which he says "looks good in its new dress; Better all around, dress, paper, letters."

In another letter he gave a list of about sixty names of persons who had contributed interesting letters and various information, auring the past year or more, and expressed his gratitude to them in earnest words. The Bulletin "has renewed old friendships I had some fifty years ago. I greatly prize it, and look for its arrival upon a certain day, because it keeps me in touch with friends of mine so many miles away. And in my mind's eye I can see and hear them as they write."

From the notes of pr. Tunison we can add a few more names to the list of old Oxford school teachers, especially principals. An important change took place about the first of the century, when the two Oxford school districts were combined by State authority, and re quire original Elias Jones.

The Christmas seal sale has about ended, though money for them still comes in, and the total will be about the same as last year . County Board of Health sent out 300 letters with the seals in this district, and about 200 have been returned. Fifty four took all the seals and ten took a fraction of them. Those who returned all the seals 130 of them have thethanks of the Board as it shows courtesy and interest in the work. There some letters of explanation which were very touching, a good proof that the work of the Board is near to the hearts of many our our people.

Joubtless, many the took some or all the seals, did so at a sacrifice. It is all very much to the credit of our community.

We had intended to print the rest of the name's of all ho took the seals, but the secretary of the soard called for the envelopes, and re failed to take the names.
