SHIPPEN TALKS PRESENTS

Wayne McCabe, Sussex Co. Historian “Mining, Minerals & Industries of Sussex & Warren Counties”

Sun., August 11, 2024 at 2pm

Wayne McCabe, the historian of Sussex County, will be the last of the Shippen Talks speakers this season. The two counties share a vast and interesting history before Warren County separated from Sussex County in 1824-25. This Sunday, Wayne will be discussing the mining, minerals, forges and furnaces that enabled not just the counties to grow and flourish, but especially Oxford.

For more information regarding the museum, parking, accessibility & more, please visit Warren200.com to view our calendar or Shippen Manor Programming schedule.

Visitors interested in attending this Shippen Talk will need to enter the exterior door on the lower east-facing porch. There is no interior access from the museum's main floor to the lower (museum basement) area.

Free admission. Family-friendly.
